Obituary

Lucile Eulalia Lee Tedder, age 99, was called home Sunday, January 1, 2012; Mrs. Tedder, beloved daughter of the late James Hampton Lee of Fort Mill, SC, a poet and journalist, her mother, the late Florence Molene Lee, Des Moines, IA, a school teacher. She was the niece of Dr. R. G. Lee, renowned Baptist preacher. Mrs. Tedder was widow of Henry "Jack" Tedder, Miami, Florida and Nassau, Bahamas.

Raised north of Atlanta, after a move to Texas, Mrs. Tedder, lived in Miami, where she and Jack raised two daughters, Patricia Ann (Galveston, Texas), Jacquelyn Lee (Viera, Florida) and a son, James Bascomb, now deceased. Mrs. Tedder was employed by Pan American Airlines. With her husband, she established a wholesale jewelry business. After her husband's death, she moved to Viera, Florida, where she remained active in church activities at the Baptist Church of Viera (Pastor Mark Ragsdale) and also at the Catholic Chapel of Indian River Colony.

Beloved of so many people because of her memorable ability to relate to people, all her life, Mrs. Tedder was always giving and truly interested in everyone, expressing such appreciation and love for her many friends, who were devoted to her. Among these friends, all through the years were Polly and Fred Werley, who became as family, caring for Lucile in numerous, loving ways.

Also close and attentive were Robin and Mike Simpson among the compassionate friends and caregivers in these final years, as well as god-daughter Nan and Larry Scheele.

Mrs. Tedder also leaves grandchildren Christopher Robert Gillette, James Carey Tedder, Arne Stream, Jr., Liisa Stream, and Alexandra Tedder; great-grandchildren Jennifer Lynn Gillette, Jillian Erin Gillette, Alexandra Taylor Gillette, and Hayley Marie Gillette; a cousin, Charlotte Adair; three nieces, Rosemary Lee Potter, Elizabeth Lee Burke, and Pauline Lee (Atlanta, Georgia); nephews, David Henry Lee and D.K. Lee. Remembering her also are grand-nephews, Robert Ellis Potter, Kenyon David Potter, John Burke, and Sean Burke; grand-nieces, Debbie Jones, Casey Burke Cusack, and Kelly Skulas. Great-grand nephews include Matteus Lee Potter, Christopher Cusack; great-grand nieces, Anabella Marie Potter, Emma Potter-Salinas, Jessica Hughes, and Kennedy Lee Cusack. Great-great grand nieces, including Keara and Elana Hughes, and great-grand nephew Alex Calinao.

Mrs. Tedder lived a long, busy life. She is missed.

Burial took place in a family plot at Woodlawn Cemetery, Miami, Florida. A memorial service will be arranged at a later time.
